Books to be discussed are available for check-out approximately one month prior to each meeting, at the Circulation Desk. New members are always welcome. Join us for a discussion of Alice's Island by Daniel Sánchez Arévalo.

SUMMARY: Alice thought she had the perfect marriage, but when her husband Chris is found dead miles away from where he said he'd be, the newly single mother can't shake the feeling that she didn't truly know him. She becomes absored in the mystery of her husband's death, tracing his last movements to an island near Nantucket. As she investigates, she must reckon with aspects of her husband that she always brushed aside.

For more information, contact Library Director, Nanci Milone Hill

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON BOOK GROUP

Wednesday, 3/25 from 1:30 pm to 2:30 pm

Join our new Wednesday Afternoon Book Group for a lively discussion. We meet on the last Wednesday of each month from 1:30 pm to 2:30 pm in the Fireplace Room.

Copies of the title to be discussed are available one month prior to each discussion. Ask for the Wednesday Afternoon Book Group choice at the front Circulation Desk.

Registration is requested, but not required. For more information, contact Library Director, Nanci Milone Hill.

This month, we will discuss Before You Know Kindness by Chris Bohjalian.

SUMMARY: On a balmy night in New Hampshire a shot rings out in a garden, and a man falls to the ground, terribly wounded. The wounded man is Spencer McCullough, the shot that hit him was fired (accidentally?) by his adolescent daughter Charlotte.

It's a family saga that is timely in its examination of some of the most important issues of our era, and timeless in its exploration of the strange and unexpected places where we find love.
